

Create your own book of songs and rhymes for children

Research as many nursery rhymes as possible and create a book. Make it colourful and interesting. These would be really useful for when you start placement!

